

City & Region

Young Audiences announces programs

Updated: April 14, 2015, 11:38 PM Published: April 14, 2015, 11:38 PM

Young Audiences Western New York will offer Creative Family Programs with Local Artists spotlighting the region's cultural heritage, races and history at libraries in Lyndonville, Batavia and Wyoming during the next two months.

The programs feature historic re-enactor Gretchen Sepik as Erie Canal Sal, actor and storyteller Celes Tisdale presenting "From Africa to America" and the Lockport comedy troupe Defiant Monkey Improv. Performance dates include:

Yates Community Library, 15 N. Main St., Lyndonville – Gretchen Sepik, 11 a.m. to noon April 25; Celes Tisdale, 11 a.m. to noon May 2; and Defiant Monkey Improv 11 a.m. to noon May 9.

Richmond Memorial Library, 19 Ross St., Batavia – Celes Tisdale, 11 a.m. to noon April 25; Gretchen Sepik, 11 a.m. to noon May 23; and Defiant Monkey Improv 11 a.m. to noon June 27.

Wyoming Free Library, 114 S. Academy St., Wyoming – Celes Tisdale, 11 a.m. to noon May 16; Defiant Monkey Improv, 1 to 2 p.m. May 30; Gretchen Sepik, 9 to 10 a.m. June 23.