

Thursday December 04, 2014

The Buffalo News.com \(/\)

City & Region

Young Audiences offers free programming

Updated: December 3, 2014, 06:45 PM Published: December 3, 2014, 06:45 PM

Young Audiences of Western New York is offering free creative family programming for the next few months during M&T First Fridays in the Albright-Knox Art Gallery and Second Saturdays in the Central Library on Lafayette Square.

The series at the Albright-Knox begins at 5:30 p.m. Friday with a program entitled "Ancient Voices," featuring musicians Ringo Brill and Steve Baczkowski.

First program in the Central Library will be at 1 p.m. Dec. 13 and will feature theatreFiguren in a performance of "Star Mother's Youngest Child." For a complete schedule, visit www.yawny.org and click on "Public Programs."

Copyright 1999 - 2014 - The Buffalo News copyright-protected material.