Three schools in Erie County have been awarded family arts festivals in the NRG Creatively Green Awards Program, co-sponsored by NRG Energy Inc. and Young Audiences of Western New York.

The festivals will be held at 4 p.m. next Thursday at Elmwood Village Charter School, 40 Days Park; at 3 p.m. June 3 at Waterfront Elementary School, 95 Fourth St.; and at 5:30 p.m. June 10 at Springville Elementary School, 283 North St., Springville.

Each festival will feature performances by Young Audiences professional teaching artists, art-making workshops and a community art-making project. For more information, call 881-0917 or visit yawny.org.
